No Deinys Max Parade.

A perfect example of the precision with which the army does things was shown in the promptness with which the parade moved from the startlus place. There is always a number of hitches in a civic parade but at 9-45 the command of "fall in was given to the cavalry which led the march, was repeated on the cavalry trumpets and relayed back to the artiller; Just as the Pioneer plaza clock road to ciock, the parade moved down Monians street and was on its five mile way to Washington park. There was not a hitch, nor a halt, in the parade, except when the men marked time to keep the proper distances.

Machine Gun Pintoon Formlanble. Mackine Gun Pistoon Formlönble.

The Sixth infantry machine gun platoon was the first to appear in the parade. The machine guns were infroduced into the army by Col. Francis J. Kernan, commander of this regiment and they attracted almost as much attention as did the artillery. The heavy leather blinders which one of the manarried over his shoulder indicated the thought which had been given to this branch of the service. Should the machine guns be ordered into battle, the miles would be blinded by the leather blinders and led to the firing line without sanger of a stampete. The packers for their lead mules.

Brum Major Makes a Hit.

The dram major of the Sixth Infantry land, which led the parade, was one of the sixths of Army day. The way he walked the maneuvers he exceuted while bringing him band around the corners and his assures in keeping time to the music showed he was proud of his musical organization which he led, the army to which he belonged and the country he was sworn to defend. The drum major major a fine appearance and was cheered again and again along the line of march.

For the Defenders of Our Flag

The dag that we love Souts out today
To the sunshine and the sky,
And we lift our hearts to the God of the free
As the flug floats proud and high.
For our soldier boys who have marched away—
For the sailor lade on the sam—
We pray to the God of the brave and the true.
To the God of the strong and the free.

The flag that we love floats out today
To the sunshine and the sky—
But 0 for the hearts that will best no more
When the flag that they loved goes by!
By the silent graves where our brothers sleep
While the tears of the nation fail,
We pledge our fives to the hallowed flag
That they followed at honor's call.

The flag that we love finals far tonar.
And our hearts are where it files.
For we gray for our boys in an alien land—
And linere are no alien skies!
We lift our hearts to the God of life.
To the God of justice and might.
And we pray as of old our fathers prayed
To the God who defended the right.

SERIES"NO.2

GARIBALDI-ITALIA'S

N the cause of Personal and National Liberty this modern Rienzi of sunny Italy would have gladly laid down his life. It inspired him to deeds of immortal grandeur, of superb valor and of boundless suffering. Garibaldi would not have legislative tyranny of any kind enter into his own private life any more than will our millions of liberty-loving Italian citizens. His flaming soul scorned any legislation which would prohibit ALL because ONE man out of thousands imbibes in gluttonous quantities. He knew that the light wines of Italy and the barley brews of Germany are beneficial to humanity

Upon an old Germanic basis 57 years ago Anheuser Busch, brewers of Budweiser, established their brand. The Constitution of the United States is the sole authority upon which they launched their business in America. Every day of these 57 years has been devoted to the brewing of an honest Barley-malt and Saazer Hop brew—the kind that spells Temperance throughout the world. Seven thousand, five hundred people are daily required to keep pace with the public demand for Budweiser. Its sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles. ANHEUSER-BUSCH - ST. LOUIS
